

Natalie Rossorelli (Ross – or – elle – eee) like Fonzerelli

Natalie enjoys the dig – finding out the how and why of a claim.

Or as her husband calls it going “CSI”.

She is a licensed Texas All Lines Adjuster with over 15 years’ experience in Risk Management. And has been described as having the patience of Job – or as “Cool Breeze” Rossorelli. Staying calm under the pressure of unhappy claimants.

She honed her Risk Management skills through on-the-job training. Growing from the ground up at DFW Airport. Beginning her Risk Management career as an Administrative Assistant and working her way up to Risk Coordinator, and Risk Analyst. She currently applies her knowledge at the Port of Houston Authority, in Houston Texas as a Claims Manager.

She has worked with Third Party Administrators, Brokers, various medical providers, Attorneys, fellow adjusters, Police & Fire, HR teams over the years to launch and sustain various programs like:

- Enterprise Risk Management
- Wellness
- Internal Health & Wellness Clinic
- Integrated Disability
- Pandemic Response teams
- Contract Management

Natalie previously held the designation of Certified Administrative Professional in Organizational Management with the IAAP. Natalie is the CEO and owner of a Home Inspection Business in Pearland, Texas. Mother to Brooke and Nico Rossorelli. In her spare time, she enjoys the spa, the beach, and reading. She and her husband Jason hail originally from Colorado and have been together for 20 years.
